

Swan Challenge Skating Seminar

It is proposed to hold a skating seminar during the Swan Challenge.

It will be hosted by three International coaches as follows

Marie Therese Kreiselmeyer

International coach to many European world and Olympic competitors in Ice Dance, but specialises in technique, use of blades, edge work and turns. Also specialises in step sequences, jumps and spins.

Patricia Arnold

Former Ice Dance coach, to Christopher Dean, and many British competitors. Current Gold Pattern dance and Masters short dance winner at Oberstdorf and other international competitions.

Specialises in correct footwork, foot placement and edge control

David Arnold

Taught alongside Patricia for a number of years,

Current Gold Pattern dance and Masters short dance winner at Oberstdorf and other international competitions.

Specialises in, correct edges, steps, edge control and choreography.

All the above coaches are certified by their federations and carry full insurance

The course will be suitable for all levels of skaters and Dance and Free skate, and will cover basic skating, to help improve your speed and flow over the ice with the emphasis placed on correct edgework and clean turns.

In addition jumps, spins etc. will be covered for correct take off, and landing positions, and how to raise your levels in spins and step sequences.

Each seminar will run for 60 minutes and it is hoped to run two or more dependent on numbers attending.

This is a great opportunity to learn and improve your marks in future competitions.

Cost of the seminar will be 20 euros per person.

Max 25 persons per seminar
